

My hobby

My hobby is reading. I spend most of my free-time reading books. When I am reading books, our minds are free to picture and link the information, it feels like I am experiencing the situation and seeing what's going on. Those are very real feelings that are hard to bring to me. I have a small library in my house for reading but sometimes I use the computer to find some interesting stories that I don't have.

dailyenglish123.com

