TRANSCRIPT:

Woman: Do you want to go out one evening this week?

Man: Sure. Are you free on Friday night?

Woman: Actually, no. My cousin is coming to visit me.

Man: How about Thursday then? I have to work late on Wednesday.

Woman: Okay. Where shall we go? Shall we go out to dinner?

Man: I don't have a lot of money at the moment. We could just meet at a bar for a drink, or you could come round to my place, and watch a DVD.

Woman: No, let's go out. I know a great place called 'The Orange Tree'. You can get two meals for six pounds on week nights.

Man: Two meals for six pounds? That's very cheap! Okay, let's eat out there then. Where is it?

Woman: Do you know Church Road?

Man: Yes, I used to go to music lessons in Love Lane. It's just around the corner from Church Road.

Woman: Well, The Orange Tree is on Potter Street. You go up Church Road and turn left near the bakery.

Man: Okay. I'm sure I can find it. What time shall we meet up? Seven o'clock?

Woman: Well, I'll probably take the bus into town. The six-forty bus gets into town at ten past seven. I can get to The Orange Tree by twenty past.

Man: That's fine. Hey, can I bring a friend?

Woman: Sure. Anyone I know?

Man: My friend Charlie. He works at the sports centre.

Woman: Yes, I think I met him at Anna's party a few months ago. He likes skiing, doesn't he?

Man: That's right.

Woman: Sure, well bring him along. It will be nice to see him again.

Man: And Charlie's got a car, so he'll be able to take you home at the end of the evening.

Woman: Oh that would be good. I don't like taking the bus late at night, and taxis are very expensive.

Man: Well, I'll see you later this week then.

Woman: See you!

Part 2: Listen and fill in the blank with a suitable word. You will listen twice.

The United Nations is a very important organization. It was started after World War II to help keep peace in the world. Nearly every country on Earth is a member of the UN. Some countries want to be but can't because other countries say they aren't countries. This includes places like Taiwan and Palestine. I think the UN works pretty well. There are lots of arguments between countries, but that's normal. The biggest arguments seem to be between America, China and Russia. They never seem to agree. There are so many parts to the UN. There's the Security Council and the General Assembly. These are the two most important parts. But then there are the umbrella agencies like UNICEF and UNESCO.

- 1. peace                      2. includes                      3. well                      4. normal                      5. security
